

Poll conducted by Research Co. on LGBTQ2+ issues in Canada - July 26, 2019

As you may know, some people believe that individuals who identify themselves as LGBTQ2+ can be “converted” into heterosexuals through psychological or spiritual intervention (this is sometimes referred to as “conversion therapy”). Do you think this is possible or impossible?

As you may know, there have been some discussions across Canada on establishing policies for the use of public bathrooms by transgender Canadians. From what you have seen, read or heard, do you think transgender Canadians should be allowed to use the public bathroom of their choice or use the public bathroom based on biological sex?
