Almost four years ago, Ken Sim and A Better City (ABC) secured majorities on school board, park board, and Vancouver council. Since then, some elected ABC members have chosen to sit as independents and ABC candidates did not win either of the two seats contested in the April 2025 council by-election. Thinking about this, which of these statements comes closest to your own point of view?

	City of Vancouver	GENDER		AGE			REGION			VOTE IN 2022 MAYORAL ELECTION
		Male	Female	18-34	35-54	55+	East of Main	West of Main	Downtown	Sim	Stewart	Other
Ken Sim and ABC may not have gotten everything right, but we need their continued leadership to make Vancouver better.	27%	29%	25%	30%	26%	26%	31%	24%	25%	38%	25%	15%
Ken Sim and ABC campaigned on ideas that I support, but they haven't kept their key promises and have had too much internal strife. We need a change in leadership at City Hall, but not a major change in policy, to make Vancouver better.	32%	33%	30%	42%	33%	23%	30%	34%	31%	37%	28%	40%
Ken Sim and ABC have shown that their policies don't work for Vancouver. We don't just need new leadership—we need different ideas to make Vancouver better.	27%	26%	29%	10%	28%	38%	24%	30%	28%	15%	44%	38%

In the April 2025 council by-election, Vancouver voters elected Sean Orr of the Coalition of Progressive Electors (COPE) and Lucy Maloney of OneCity Vancouver. As we head into a full municipal election this fall, which of these statements comes closest to your own point of view?

As you may know, voters in New York City elected Zorhan Mamdani as Mayor last year. Mamdani has called for major changes to benefit working class New Yorkers. Thinking about this, which of these statements comes closest to your own point of view?

	City of Vancouver	GENDER		AGE			REGION			VOTE IN 2022 MAYORAL ELECTION
		Male	Female	18-34	35-54	55+	East of Main	West of Main	Downtown	Sim	Stewart	Other
Vancouver needs a Mayor and Council like Mamdani, willing to make major changes that will make life more affordable, even if they make Vancouver's elite uncomfortable.	59%	60%	59%	67%	53%	60%	58%	60%	62%	55%	73%	54%
A Mayor like Mamdani is too risky for Vancouver. A socialist mayor and council will undermine investment in our city, and see a return to the soft-on-crime approaches of previous councils.	23%	26%	20%	23%	22%	24%	26%	23%	19%	29%	16%	35%
